Web Sites

Earth Trends - the environmental information portal: <http://earthtrends.wri.org/>

Sponsored by the World Resources Institute, the EarthTrends is an online collection that focuses on the environmental, social, and economic trends that shape our world. It offers a comprehensive collection of vital statistics drawn from internationally recognized agencies, as well as WRI-generated maps, graphics, and analyses.

Earth Portal: <http://earthportal.org/>

This Web site is maintained by the National Council for Science and the Environment and serves as a single point of entry to quality environmental information. It has three components: the Encyclopedia of Earth, the Earth Forum and the Earth New. It includes physical and life sciences and engineering information and data.

EnviroLink: <http://www.envirolink.org/>

Databases, Web sites, electronic journals, and library services that lead you to information about environmental concerns.

EnviroLink maintains a database of thousands of environmental resources that ranges from air quality, ecosystems to waste management and water quality.
